[Approved by Governor July 19, 2005. Filed with

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 443, Committee on Elections, Reapportionment and Constitutional Amendments. Elections.

Existing law sets forth the procedures for declaring candidacy for a district office, including the availability of forms and the dates on which the declarations of candidacy are due to the county elections official.

This bill would prohibit a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office or term of office for the same district at the same election.

This bill would make corrections to erroneous cross-references.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4002 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

4002. Notwithstanding Section 4000, a special district may conduct its elections by mail in accordance with Sections 1500, 4104, 4105, and 4108.

(b) "Eligible entity" means a school district or a special district.

(c) Notwithstanding Sections 1500 and 4000, an election in a small city or an eligible entity may be conducted wholly as an all-mail ballot election, subject to the following conditions:

An election conducted pursuant to this section shall be held on a date prescribed in Section 1500 or on any other date other than an established election date.
